

ONE LOVE'S ALL WE NEED

Music Tomi Yatsukame / lyrics by Seiji Motoyama / Song Hiroko Yamaguchi

Born of fire in old ancient times
Long before history
Brought to life by His guiding hand
It's our destiny

Take your time and you will see
What this world needs now is the love that you bring

In days of old, many kings they did rule
Their soldiers fought, tell me what do they fight for Don't you know that we, one last call that we must heed
It's time to save the kingdom of earth

One love's all we need
From the mountains high to the oceans
deep
Make a wish for tomorrow
Won't you come with me
From the creatures small to the air we breathe
May the spirit we breed live forever

In a world of hunger and pain
Raging seas, broken dreams Temptation to stray from the path that we know is good

Take your time and you will see
Only love will conquer it's our destiny

Take hold my hand
Won't you follow my lead I'll take you to
To a land where we'll be free
It's the voice of hope
It's the voice that calls for peace
The voice of truth shall ring out loudly

One love's all we need
From the mountains high to the oceans
deep
Make a wish for tomorrow
Won't you come with me
From the creatures small to the air we
breathe
Say it loud so the whole world can hear
May the spirit we breed live forever

Say a prayer, say it for me
A sight for all to see
Can't you hear, the bells of victory
Don't you know we'll be strong
Together we will prevail
Working together

One love's all we need
There's no time for you, there's no time for me
Make a wish for tomorrow
Won't you come with me
From the creatures small to the air we
breathe
Say it loud so the whole world can hear
May the spirit we breed live forever
