

YOU'VE CHANGED~(but I won't forget)

Music gassy / lyrics by Seiji Motoyama / Song Hiromi Sakikoyama

Long ago I had a good friend
Never need a reason why It's just the way it should be Promises made things that were said Words they flow so naturally Like water flows in a stream

A change so slow, I barely could see it I hear it in your voice when you're talking, talking to me
Rejection soft, I barely could feel it You're leaving me here alone I need you desperately

I need your honesty
But you're moving oh so far away
Searching through the past I try to find the words to say
I need something to believe
And I know that some day you will see
Even though the wounds they cut so deep
I can hardly feel the pain
Those days are just a memory,
never will be the same
I search for a reason why
and I can't believe, how you've changed

Time will heal all wounds they will mend
And I know no one's to blame It's just the way it's got to be
All the good things, seems they must end Memories are burned so deep
They will forever haunt me

Your old brown coat it sits in the corner
These fragments from the past calling to me, won't let me be
They block my path, I've got to get over But when I get close to you, can't face the remedy

I need you here with me
But you're moving oh so far away
Try to be strong but I just can't face another day
I need something to believe Searching for an answer, can't you see Moving on, the road in front of me
Through the tears I feel the pain
Those days are just a memory,
never will be the same
I search for a reason why
and I can't believe, how you've changed

I need your honesty
But you're moving oh so far away
Searching through the past I try to find
the words to say
I need something to believe
And I know that some day you will see
Even though the wounds they cut so deep
I can hardly feel the pain
Those days are just a memory,
never will be the same
and I can't believe, how we've changed
